

CHRISTMAS AT THE AVALON

'Tis the season to be jolly and we'll be pulling out all the festive stops this winter at one of South London's most exciting gastro pubs – The Avalon.

Combining luxurious elements with Victorian industrial flair, The Avalon is a 21st century version of the traditional tavern, offering the very best British food, fine wines, cask ales and classic cocktails.

Our handsome pub encompasses a huge bar and dining room as well as the beautiful Blue Room and heated & covered Courtyard for private events, so whether you're after a place to let your hair down with colleagues, a relaxed and cosy meal with the family, or you're planning a full-blown festive banquet to remember, we've got Christmas covered.

"The Avalon has deservedly earned a reputation as a sophisticated purveyor of gastro cuisine and premium spirits. Service is attentive, with well-trained staff that are eager to please."

ABOUT RENAISSANCE

Renaissance is a small collection of pubs in South London run by local boys Tom, Mark and Nick, who opened The Abbeville in 2003. Five other pubs have followed, each with its own unique character.

Ten years on, there has never been a better time to celebrate with Renaissance as we ring in our first decade with the launch of our award winning TEN London Gin, TEN House Red & White Wines and superb London TEN Ale.

At Renaissance our ethos has always been to do the simple things well and add a dash of flair. Our excellent ales and superb value wines are matched by dishes featuring free range produce from our own farm in Hampshire and sustainable fish from English day boats.
